

- A 501(c)(3) Non-Profit Organization -

Thank you for your donation to Eastside Community Connection. Your support makes it possible for Eastside Community Connection to address the issue of poverty in East Austin as well as to offer endless opportunities for UT students to learn about nonprofit work.

Eastside Community Connection offers food assistance and adult educational resources in East Austin, and hands-on nonprofit experience for college students. For a thorough look at our services and goals, search our website at www.austinecc.org. If you have any questions about the use of your donation, please feel free to contact us.

Residents of East Austin and members of the UT community can rely on Eastside Community Connection because of your support. Thank you for making our efforts possible.

Sincerely,

Graham Davis
Executive Director
